About the narrator:

Lanajean Vecchione has been a serious collector of sixties and seventies fashion since the early eighties. With help from her volunteer group Fashion Flashbacks, she has designed exhibits, coordinated fashion photo shoots, and created web sites. While earning her BA in journalism she launched Groovy Juice, the first New England store to specialize in the seventies, now on the internet. Lanajean is a member of the Federation of Vintage Fashion and a contributor to Vintage, Vintage Gazette, and Antique Journal. She shares her small apartment with hundreds of vintage garments and accessories, making it difficult to find a place to sit.

Please visit Groovy Juice at www.groovyjuice.com and tell her what you think!

If you would like to attend or get involved in future fashion shows or exhibits, please sign our private mailing list, located at the back table. You may also e-mail your address to Lanajean@best.com or call (415)344-6977.

Thanks for attending!
